

Robin Thorne
RTHawk Housing Alliance LLC
Vice President - Training & Asset Management

Robin Thorne has been working with Tribal clients in developing and managing their Tribal Affordable Housing Projects since 2003, where she works directly with Tribal Housing Authorities, and their employees, Boards and stakeholders to ensure compliance with LIHTC, NAHASDA, AHP and other Affordable Housing program requirements.

She is a frequent Tribal Housing Industry Expert Speaker at Regional and National Training Conferences, and at Tribal Association events. She regularly leads educational Seminars and Technical Assistance as a Subject Matter Expert, in addition to supporting clients and Tribal partners with on-site visits and resources.

In Collaboration with the National American Indian Housing Council, Robin created the NAHASDA & Tax Credit Compliance Professional (NTCCP) curriculum and national certification program. This designed the framework to classify professional experience and expertise in advancing Operational Compliance under both programs.

Robin, in her dedication to building relationships with Tribal clients, Tribal advocacy groups, State allocating agencies and Elected Officials works hard to ensure that Tax Credit and Grant Program Policies reflect the concerns and needs of Tribal organizations.

Robin is certified as a National Compliance Professional Executive (NCPE) and a member of the NCP Advisory Board for the Housing Credit College. She is also a Housing Credit Certified Professional (HCCP), designated by the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) and is a member of the HCCP Board of Governors.

Today, Robin is Vice President of RTHawk Housing Alliance, LLC. where she leads the companies Training and Asset Management division.
